

Description

Coaching education is a top priority with Pursuit of Excellence. Funding is available to assist coaches, referees, officials, and other volunteers to attend training opportunities to further their expertise in their chosen sport. This funding prioritizes coaching education, particularly locally through clinics, conferences, and symposiums.

Eligibility

Applicants may be eligible for up to two-thirds of the funds required; the individual/club is to provide remaining. Coaches, officials and volunteers can receive up to $1,000 per year.

Coaches who are being paid may be eligible for up to one-third of the funds required, and volunteer coaches may be eligible for up to two-thirds. Coaches accepting honorariums are not considered to be paid coaches. Continuing contribution to amateur sport in Grande Prairie will also be a factor in approving funding.

Submission Information

Complete applications may be submitted electronically to Sports Development, Wellness and Culture at grants@cityofgp.com.
