

Description

This award is given to local athletes who require assistance to enhance their training and development. Recipients should demonstrate and value contributing to their community and strive towards the building of mutually beneficial relationships. Athletes are well positioned to be positive role models in their communities and can be the leaders of tomorrow.

- The annual award amount is determined based on the value of the endowment fund.
- Applicants receiving this scholarship are still eligible for any of the other grants in the same year.
- The Community Foundation requires a statement of accountability including how the funding awarded has helped support the athlete.

Criteria and Guidelines

Application must include:

- Athletes must be or have been part of the Grande Prairie Sport Development System.
- Applications must include letters of support from a coach/mentor.
- Applications must include confirmation of membership with Provincial/National Sport Association.
- Applications must include an individual goal statement outlining short and long-term goals and objectives.
- Applicants must disclose information about the amount of self-help, sponsorship and any other types of assistance.
